

An aerial photograph of a city skyline, likely New York City, taken during sunset or sunrise. The sky is filled with soft, golden light and wispy clouds. The city buildings are silhouetted against the bright sky. The quote is overlaid in the upper half of the image.

When the power of love
overcomes the love of power,
the world will know peace.

This week in chapel we're thinking about the apostle Paul's list of 'fruits of the spirit' – characteristics that Christians are to grow in... and characteristics that we can all learn from and think about.

The third one is 'peace'. World peace is something that people have thought, and even fought, about for a long time.

Prayer

Lord, we lift your broken, warring world to you and ask that you might bring peace into troubled countries and conflicts.

Amen

You cannot find peace
by avoiding life.

This week in chapel we're thinking about the apostle Paul's list of 'fruits of the spirit' – characteristics that Christians are to grow in... and characteristics that we can all learn from and think about.

The third one is 'peace'. Peace is not just something which can happen between nations, it also can be used to describe an individual person, who feels at peace with the world. However as this quote reminds us, peace cannot be found by avoiding the real issues and problems of life.

Prayer

Lord, we ask for your help in the midst of life. We thank you that you know everything about us; even how many hairs are on our head. Help us to know your peace as we face life.

Amen

WHEN WE PUT OUR PROBLEMS IN GOD'S HANDS, HE PUTS HIS PEACE IN OUR HEARTS.

This week in chapel we're thinking about the apostle Paul's list of 'fruits of the spirit' – characteristics that Christians are to grow in... and characteristics that we can all learn from and think about.

The third one is 'peace'. Many people over the ages have found faith in God to be a path to real and lasting peace. A way of recognising that we don't know all the answers, but he does.

Prayer

Lord, we put our problems into your hands and ask for your peace, which passes all understanding, through your son Jesus Christ, Amen
