Liverpool College Equal Opportunities Policy

Introduction

Liverpool College committed to giving all our pupils every opportunity to achieve the highest of standards. We do this by taking account of pupils' varied experiences and needs. We offer a broad and balanced curriculum, and have high expectations of all pupil.

This policy is intended to help to ensure that Liverpool College promotes the individuality of all pupils, irrespective of ethnicity, religion or belief, attainment, age, disability, gender, gender re-assignment, or sexual orientation or background, and takes into account legislation:

- Equality Act 2010 and associated regulations
- Employment Act 2008
- Human Rights Act 1998
- Employment Relations Act 2004
- Part-time Workers (Prevention of Less Favourable Treatment) Regulations 2000
- Fixed Term Employees (Prevention of Less Favourable Treatment) Regulations 2002
- Employment Statutory Code of Practice 2011 and supplement 2014
- Equal Treatment Directive 2006

This policy is a whole College policy and applies to the Primary and Secondary Phases. It also applies to the Breakfast Clubs, After School Clubs and Boarding.

Aims

- Liverpool College is committed to securing equality of opportunity through the creation of an environment in which individuals are valued. This commitment is shared by pupils, staff and governors. We do not discriminate against anyone, be they staff, pupil or parent, on the grounds of ethnicity, culture, religion, attainment, age, disability, gender or background.
- We promote the principle of fairness and justice for all through the education that we provide at Liverpool College. We recognise that doing this may entail treating some pupils differently.
- We seek to ensure that all pupils have equal access to the full range of educational opportunities and careers education provided by the College.
- We constantly strive to remove direct and indirect discrimination that may form barriers to learning.
- We ensure that all recruitment, employment, promotion and training systems are fair to all, and provide opportunities for everyone. We challenge personal prejudice and stereotypical views whenever they occur.
- We value each pupil, we celebrate the individuality and cultural diversity of our community, and we show respect and appreciation for all minority groups.
- We are aware that prejudice and stereotyping are caused by numerous factors including poor self-image and by ignorance. Through positive educational experiences, we aim to promote positive social attitudes, and respect for all.
- We will enable pupils to take responsibility for their behaviour and relationships with others.
- We understand the need to protect pupils from the effects of prejudice, stereotyping and bullying.

Roles and Responsibilities

Governing Body

In this policy statement, the Governing Body has set out its commitment to equal opportunities, and it will continue to do all it can to ensure that all members of the school community are treated both fairly and equally.

The Governing Body:

- monitors the effectiveness of this policy
- ensures that people with disabilities and other protected characteristics are not discriminated against when applying for jobs at the College
- takes all reasonable steps to ensure that the College environment properly accommodates people with disabilities
- welcomes all applications to join the College on a non-discriminatory basis
- ensures that no pupil is discriminated against whilst in our college on account of their gender, religion or belief, culture, disability, race, sexual orientation, gender identity, care background or social circumstances. For example, all children have access to the full range of the curriculum. If a pupil's religion has a bearing on school uniform, then the school will deal with each case sensitively, and with respect for the pupil's cultural traditions
- ensures that the statutory framework for the Early Years Foundation Stage is met.

Principal

The Principal:

- implements the college's policy on equal opportunities.
- ensures that all staff are aware of the equal opportunities policy, and that teachers apply these guidelines fairly in all situations
- ensures that all appointment panels give due regard to this policy, so that no applicant is discriminated against
- promotes the principle of equal opportunity when developing the curriculum.
- promotes respect for other people in all aspects of school life; in assemblies, for example, respect for other people is a regular theme
- deals with all incidents of unfair treatment and any racist incidents appropriately.

Staff

The staff:

- do their best to ensure that all pupils are treated fairly and with respect, and that they do not knowingly discriminate against any pupil
- strive to provide resources that give positive images, and that challenge stereotypical ones
- seek to implement this policy when designing schemes of work, both in choice of material, and in the approach to sensitive issues
- challenge any incidents of prejudice or discrimination based on any protected or personal characteristic.

Racial Equality

Liverpool College will:

- strive to eliminate all forms of racism and racial discrimination
- promote equality of opportunity
- promote good relations between people of different racial and ethnic groups.

It is the right of all pupils to receive the best education Liverpool College can provide, with access to all educational activities organised by the college. We have zero tolerance towards any forms of racism or racist behaviour. Should a racist incident occur, we will deal with it in accordance with school procedures.

Harassment of anyone on any such grounds whether inside or outside of the classroom will be treated as discrimination.

Types of harassment include:

- physical harassment including gestures and assault
- verbal or written (including electronic communication) abuse, intimidation, derogatory name-calling, insults, threats and racist 'jokes'
- visual displays of offensive material including posters and graffiti
- issuing/wearing of racist materials, e.g. leaflets, magazines, insignia
- inciting others to behave in a racist manner
- isolation or exclusion from social activities
- refusing to co-operate with others on racial grounds.

We endeavour to make Liverpool College welcoming to all. We promote an understanding of diverse cultures through the topics studied by the children, and we reflect this in the displays of work shown around the campus. Our curriculum reflects the attitudes, values and respect for all.

Disability Non-Discrimination

We will not tolerate any form of discrimination against anyone on the grounds of any physical, mental or intellectual disability. The College fully meets the requirements of the Equality Act (2010). All reasonable steps are taken to ensure pupils with a form of disability are not placed at a disadvantage compared with non-disabled children. Not only does the College avoid negative discrimination but explores the positivity in every situation.

Liverpool College is committed to providing a curriculum that allows disabled children full access to all areas of learning.

Harassment of anyone on any such grounds whether inside or outside of the classroom will be treated as discrimination.

The types of harassment based on disability include:

- physical harassment including gestures
- verbal or written (including electronic communication) abuse, intimidation, derogatory comment, insults, threats and jokes
- visual displays of offensive material including posters and graffiti
- refusing to co-operate with others on the grounds of their disability
- isolation or exclusion from social activities
- making offensive remarks about anyone's disability.

Disabled and non-disabled pupils have equal access to the curriculum throughout each Key Stage, and non-compulsory courses, according to aptitude and ability.

The college is committed to full educational inclusion. Analysis of attainment, behaviour and other pupil data will be undertaken by gender, ethnic background and ability. All subjects will have equality of opportunity at their core and make explicit references within schemes of work. College rules and policies for pupils clearly and explicitly forbid the verbalisation or vocalisation of discrimination on the grounds of gender, religion or belief, culture, disability, race, sexual orientation, gender identity, ability/disability and care background or social circumstances. Positive attitudes and awareness development for equality of opportunity is specifically taught through the Personal Development Programme,

Teachers modify teaching and learning as appropriate for pupils who are disabled. For example, they may give additional time to complete certain activities, modify teaching materials, or offer alternative activities where children are unable to manipulate tools or equipment.

Schools will have to provide extra equipment or support for current and prospective disabled pupils if failure to do so would result in these pupils being put at a substantial disadvantage compared to their non-disabled peers. Therefore, when there is a requirement to provide auxiliary aids and services the college will do so without passing on the costs to parents.

Gender Equality

We realise that although gender is one of the key factors affecting educational performance, it affects different sub-groups of boys and girls in different ways. Social class, ethnic origin and local context are all strongly linked to performance. We also seek to ensure that policies designed to improve the boys' attainment do not do so at the expense of achievement by the girls and vice versa.

We will not tolerate any form of discrimination against anyone on the grounds of their sex, marital status or sexual orientation. Harassment of anyone on any such grounds whether inside or outside of the classroom will be treated as discrimination.

Types of such conduct include:

- physical harassment including gestures and assault
- verbal or written (including electronic communication) abuse, intimidation, derogatory comment, insults, threats and 'blue' jokes
- visual displays of offensive material including posters and graffiti
- using lewd or suggestive vocabulary to cause offence or humiliation
- isolation or exclusion from social activities
- derogatory reference to an individual's or group's sexual orientation
- making offensive sexist comments or suggestions
- refusing to co-operate with others on account of their sex, marital status or sexual orientation.

Procedures for Dealing with Any Incident of Discrimination or Harassment

Liverpool College adopts a zero-tolerance approach, both formally and informally, to discrimination. Any form of discrimination should be reported. All incidents will be recorded, monitored and reviewed on a regular basis. All victims will be appropriately supported.

Informal Procedure

It may be appropriate to try to resolve the problem informally instead of invoking the formal procedure. This will take the form of discussions and if appropriate, mediation and apologies.

Formal Procedure

At any time, or if any informal approach proves unsuccessful in resolving an issue, the individual or group may invoke a formal procedure.

- Any such incident must be reported to a member of Senior Leadership, who will enact the procedure.
- A senior member of staff (the investigation officer) will interview, within 72 hours of the complaint, the individual or group complaining of wrongful behaviour. Notes will be taken at the interview.
- The investigating officer will then interview the individual(s) who is (are) alleged to have committed the offence (including members of staff, if appropriate). Notes will be taken at the interview.

- Parents/Carers of any pupils involved in the incident will be informed.
- The investigation officers will prepare a report for consideration by a Vice Principal (or Principal in serious cases) who will decide on the action, if any, to be taken.
- Victims or witnesses of harassment/discrimination will receive appropriate support and counselling. Reasonable steps will be taken to protect them from any retaliation.
- Relevant external agencies including the Police will be informed, if appropriate.

Sanctions

If necessary, proportionate sanctions, as per the Behaviour Policy, will be applied. Where breaches of this policy are committed by members of staff, the sanctions to be applied shall be determined in accordance with Staff Disciplinary and Grievance Procedures.

Appointments

Advertisements and job specifications will all carry a statement that this school is an Equal Opportunities employer, and welcomes applications from all posts from appropriately qualified persons regardless of gender, race, ethnic or national origin, culture, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, marital or single partner status, religion or belief, disability or age.

Disabled people will be offered facilities at interviews to enable them to demonstrate their suitability for employment.

Candidates for vacant posts will be assessed against relevant criteria only, i.e. skills, qualifications and experience in selection for recruitment.

Staff Development

All employees have equal chances of training, career development and promotion.

- All recruits to the college will be offered induction training, which will include a reference to the Equal Opportunities Policy.
- Staff development opportunities will be monitored and statistics presented to the Governors annually, or more often if requested by the Governing Body. All staff, and in particular those concerned with selection and promotion, are given equality awareness training.
- If an employee becomes disabled while in employment, reasonable adjustments will be made to support them in their role of the member of staff will be considered for redeployment if that is necessary.

Documents

- Language used in documents will reflect and promote equal opportunities and font style and size will take account of the full range of readers.
- Access to documentation will, on request, include alternative formats such as large print and languages other than English, if spoken or read at home.

Parental Access to Policies

This policy is available for parents to read on the college Website. Parents are also welcome to view the policy in college or we will send it to them on request.

Monitoring and Review

It is the responsibility of our Governing Body to monitor the effectiveness of this policy. The Governors will therefore:

- monitor the progress of pupils from minority groups, comparing it with the progress made by other pupils in the school
- monitor the staff appointment process to avoid discrimination
- require the Principal to report to the Governing Body annually, at the start of the academic year, on the effectiveness of this policy
- take into serious consideration any complaints from parents, staff or pupils regarding equal opportunity
- monitor the school's Behaviour Policy, and the numbers of exclusions, to make sure that pupils from minority groups are not unfairly treated.
