What are the planned opportunities for adaptive teaching, including for SEND, the more and able and disadvantaged pupils?	Through adaptive teaching pupils are challenged at an appropriate level and their needs met e.g. giving additional tasks or re-visiting previous skills. We share our overviews and good practise with support teachers. Scaffolding of taught concepts/practical skills Equipment is made available for pupils to practice skills at break and lunch times should they wish to develop their skills away from lesson time or need further support with class or homework.

	We regularly offer support through Saturday and holiday sessions. We follow strategies implemented by SEND. We ensure we know the students and their needs through regular dialogue with SEND and the individual student.

What are the planned opportunities for retrieval and reflection by pupils?	'Do it now' activities at the start of each lesson provide opportunity for pupils to retrieve knowledge previously taught. Skill and muscle memory. Keywords - Subject/unit specific terminology is listed at the start of each unit and are re-visited as pupils progress through each unit. Dialogic Teaching Refinement and reflection throughout various assessment strategies across the unit. Students from different key stages will provide workshops for younger students in areas they have developed.

What are the opportunities for feed forward by the teacher post assessment outcomes?	Teachers and students continually review and reflect through assessments, following on from each unit / progress point, pupils set a target for development during the next progress period, based on the elements studied and the keywords. Pupils are encouraged to set a specific target to address and improve upon during the following unit. Teachers review and analyse data using tools such as SISRA and marksheets. Student voice and surveys are also used to inform planning.
---	---

What are the planned opportunities for developing Reading?	Keywords, definitions and spelling tests are used consistently throughout each unit. Critical and conceptual studies are a vital part of every unit. Students are expected to develop their critical review work as they develop through the key stage with a particular emphasis on their opinions about the work studied.

What are the planned opportunities for developing literacy, numeracy, oracy and SMSC?	Literacy: Correct spelling of subject-specific terminology and vocabulary is taught at relevant points throughout KS3. Numeracy: Composition, gridding /scaling, estimating, symmetry, repetition, perspective and pattern cutting develop numeracy. Oracy: Pupils are encouraged to discuss the art work they study, using a greater amount of appraising language as they pass through KS3.
