FUTURES FOR ALL 2027 YOUTH COUNCIL

The Futures For All Youth Council acts as an advisory board for their teams, providing valuable insights and perspectives from young people to help improve their programmes. They are looking for up to 15 enthusiastic young people who want to make their voices heard on topics relating to careers education and future career opportunities.
There may also be opportunities to attend or speak at educational events, take part in roundtable discussions with policymakers, MPs and employers, and access training to develop new skills and build confidence. Applications close on 20th November and you can apply here.

AVIATION CAREER SIMULATIONS FOR CHAPTER 10-13

The Aviation Industry Skills Board (AISB) has launched brand-new, free Career Simulations on Springpod. Step into real aviation roles, tackle real-world challenges and hear from people who do the job today – online and at your own pace. Built with leading organisations including British Airways, Virgin Atlantic, Heathrow, TUI, Swissport and easyJet, the simulations give students a real feel for five aviation careers:

- Pilot
- Aircraft Maintenance Technician
- Data Analyst
- Ground Services
- Sustainability in Aviation

You can register here.

NAVIGATE: WHAT TO EXPECT FROM THE APPRENTICESHIP RECRUITMENT PROCESS WEBINAR

Securing an apprenticeship starts with understanding the recruitment process and this webinar is here to demystify it. Ideal for prospective apprentices and those supporting them, this session offers a step-by-step look at what happens from application to appointment and offers valuable hints and tips for how to prepare. Register here.

THE UNIVERSITY OF YORK'S BLACK ACCESS PROGRAMME

Co-created with current Black-heritage students, The University of York's Black Access programme supports Black-heritage students on their journey to Higher Education. Built around the principle "For Black Students, By Black Students", the programme gives eligible students the chance to discover university life through honest conversations, shared experiences and a supportive community. The deadline to apply is 18th November and there is more information here.

KING'S COLLEGE LONDON MEDICINE AND DENTISTRY LECTURE SERIES 2027

Applications for King's College London Medicine and Dentistry Online Lecture Series 2027 are now open!
This programme is for students across the UK in Year 11, 12, and 13 interested in becoming a doctor or dentist.
Over the course of the programme students will hear from a wide variety of speakers to help build their understanding of the opportunities and challenges of being a doctor and dentist, as well as guidance on the application process. The deadline to register is 1st December and you can sign up here.

NEW ARTS AND HUMANITIES PATHWAYS WEBINAR SERIES FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF LEEDS.

The University of Leeds has announced details of their new webinar series designed to help students explore where their interests in arts and humanities subjects could take them in higher education and beyond. The series provides students with valuable insight into studying arts and humanities subjects at university through subject-focused sessions, student perspectives and career-focused discussions. Click here for more information.

STUDY SKILLS & REVISION: HELPING YOUR TEEN BUILD BETTER HABITS AT HOME

Good revision is about consistent habits, not last-minute cramming. This practical session gives you evidence-based techniques to help your teen study effectively at home and stay on track through the year.
What you'll take away:

- Revision techniques that are proven to work
- How to build a realistic, manageable revision timetable
- Creating a study-friendly environment at home
- How to support motivation without adding pressure

There is a small cost to this session; registration and details can be found here.

HOW TO WRITE A GREAT FIRST CV.

Click here to register for a free webinar from Dale Willis who breaks down each section of the CV, explains why it is there, and suggests simple ways to make sure a student's CV really works for them.

MYPATH JOB OF THE WEEK

In this section I will be sharing a 'Job Of The Week' from the MYPATH careers website. This week the job is Toxicologist. Click here for the video.
